

Data Protection Policy

Nottingham News Centre CIC (NNC) takes its responsibilities with regards to the management of the requirements of the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) very seriously. This policy sets out how the Nottingham News Centre manages those responsibilities, from guidelines at <https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/guide-to-data-protection/> .

Nottingham News Centre obtains, uses, stores and otherwise processes personal data relating to staff, volunteers, service users and online, via websites and social media. When processing personal data, Nottingham News Centre is obliged to fulfil an individual's reasonable expectations of privacy by complying with GDPR and other relevant data protection legislation (i.e., data protection law).

Nottingham News Centre needs to collect and use certain types of information about the Individuals or Service Users who come into contact with Nottingham News Centre in order to carry on our work. This personal information must be collected and dealt with appropriately, whether it is collected on paper, stored in a computer database, or recorded on other material and there are safeguards to ensure this under the Data Protection Act 2018.

Introduction

This policy, therefore, seeks to ensure that we:

- Are clear about how personal data must be processed and the Nottingham News Centre's expectations for all those who process personal data on its behalf.
- Comply with the data protection law and with good practice.
- Protect Nottingham News Centre's reputation by ensuring that personal data entrusted to us is processed in accordance with data subjects' rights.
- Protect Nottingham News Centre from the risk of personal data breaches and other breaches of data protection law.

The main terms used are explained in the glossary at the end of this policy.

Data Controller

Nottingham News Centre CIC is the Data Controller under the Act, which means that it determines what purposes personal information held, will be used for. It is also responsible for notifying the Information Commissioner of the data it holds or is likely to hold, and the general purposes that this data will be used.

Scope

This policy applies to all personal data we process regardless of the location where that personal data is stored and regardless of the data subject. All staff and others processing personal data on the Company's behalf must read it. A failure to comply with this policy may result in disciplinary action.

Disclosure

Nottingham News Centre CIC may share data with other agencies such as the local authority, funding bodies and other voluntary agencies.

The Individual/Service User will be made aware in most circumstances of how and with whom their information will be shared. There are circumstances where the law allows to disclosure of Nottingham News Centre CIC data (including sensitive data) without the subject's consent.

These are:

- Carrying out a legal duty or as authorised by the Secretary of State
- Protecting vital interests of an Individual/Service User or another person
- The Individual/Service User has already made the information public.
- Conducting any legal proceedings, obtaining legal advice, or defending any legal rights
- Monitoring for equal opportunities e.g., race, disability or religion
- Providing a confidential service where the Individual/Service User's consent cannot be obtained or where it is reasonable to proceed without consent e.g., where we would wish to avoid forcing stressed or ill Individuals/Service Users to provide consent signatures.

Nottingham News Centre CIC regards the lawful and correct treatment of personal information as very important to successful working, and to maintaining the confidence of those with whom we deal.

Personal Data Protection Principles

Nottingham News Centre CIC intends to ensure that personal information is treated lawfully and correctly.

To this end, Nottingham News Centre CIC will adhere to the Principles of Data Protection, as detailed in the Data Protection Act 1998. Specifically, the Principles require that personal information:

- Shall be processed fairly and lawfully and shall not be processed unless specific conditions are met,
- Shall be obtained only for one or more of the purposes specified in the Act, and shall not be processed in any manner incompatible with that purpose or those purposes,
- Shall be adequate, relevant and not excessive in relation to those purpose(s)
- Shall be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date,

- Shall not be kept for longer than is necessary.
- Shall be processed in accordance with the rights of data subjects under the Act,
- Shall be kept secure by the Data Controller who takes appropriate technical and other measures to prevent unauthorised or unlawful processing or accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal information,
- Shall not be transferred to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area unless that country or territory ensures an adequate level of protection for the rights and freedoms of Individuals/Service Users in relation to the processing of personal information.

Nottingham News Centre CIC will, through appropriate management and strict application of criteria and controls:

- Observe fully conditions regarding the fair collection and use of information.
- Meet its legal obligations to specify the purposes for which information is used.
- Collect and process appropriate information, and only to the extent that it is needed to fulfil its operational needs or to comply with any legal requirements.
- Ensure the quality of information used.
- Ensure that the rights of people about whom information is held can be fully exercised under the Act. These include:
 - The right to be informed that processing is being undertaken,
 - The right of access to one's personal information
 - The right to prevent processing in certain circumstances.
 - The right to correct, rectify, block or erase information which is regarded as wrong information)
 - Take appropriate technical and organisational security measures to safeguard personal information.
 - Ensure that personal information is not transferred abroad without suitable safeguards.
 - Treat people justly and fairly whatever their age, religion, disability, gender, sexual orientation or ethnicity when dealing with requests for information.
 - Set out clear procedures for responding to requests for information.

Data Protection

Informed consent is when:

- An Individual/Service User clearly understands why their information is needed, who it will be shared with, and the possible consequences of them agreeing or refusing the proposed use of the data.
- And then gives their consent.

Nottingham News Centre CIC will ensure that data is collected within the boundaries defined in this policy. This applies to data that is collected in person, or by completing a form.

When collecting data, Nottingham News Centre CIC will ensure that the Individual/Service User:

- Clearly understands why the information is needed.
- Understands what it will be used for and what the consequences are should the Individual/Service User decide not to give consent to the processing.
- As far as reasonably possible, grants explicit consent, either written or verbal for data to be processed.
- Is, as far as reasonably practicable, competent enough to give consent and has given so freely without any duress.
- Has received sufficient information on why their data is needed and how it will be used.

Data Storage

Information and records relating to service users will be stored securely and will only be accessible to authorised staff and volunteers.

Information will be stored for only as long as it is needed or required by statute and will be disposed of appropriately.

It is Nottingham News Centre CIC's responsibility to ensure all personal and company data is nonrecoverable from any computer system previously used within the organisation, which has been passed on/sold to a third party.

Data Access and Accuracy

All Individuals/Service Users have the right to access the information Nottingham News Centre CIC holds about them. Nottingham News Centre CIC will also take reasonable steps ensure that this information is kept up to date by asking data subjects whether there have been any changes.

In addition, Nottingham News Centre CIC will ensure that:

- It has a Data Protection Officer with specific responsibility for ensuring compliance with Data Protection

- Everyone processing personal information understands that they are contractually responsible for following good data protection practice.
- Everyone processing personal information is appropriately trained to do so.
- Everyone processing personal information is appropriately supervised.
- Anybody wanting to make enquiries about handling personal information knows what to do.
- It deals promptly and courteously with any enquiries about handling personal information.
- It describes clearly how it handles personal information.
- It will regularly review and audit the ways it holds, manage and use personal information.
- It regularly assesses and evaluates its methods and performance in relation to handling personal information.
- All staff are aware that a breach of the rules and procedures identified in this policy may lead to disciplinary action being taken against them.

This policy will be updated as necessary to reflect best practices in data management, security and control and to ensure compliance with any changes or amendments made to the Data Protection Act 1998.

In case of any queries or questions in relation to this policy please contact the Nottingham News Centre CIC Data Protection Officer:
